EMBARGO: FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

28 March 2019

Easter Holidays at Somerset Rural Life Museum

This Easter, Somerset Rural Life Museum has a fun-packed timetable of activities for families to enjoy. Over two weeks, children can embark on the ever-popular Easter Egg Trail and get creative at Family Fun Days.

Visitors can also explore the Museum's current exhibition, 'Matilda Temperley: A View From The Hill'. The exhibition is on display until 1 June and explores the county's people and places through the lens of an award-winning photographer.

Inspired by the wonderful annual celebrations and alternative communities featured in the exhibition, the Museum is hosting a Family Fun Day on Thursday 11 April. Children can try their hands at circus skills, making a dreamcatcher and creating colourful friendship bracelets.

On Thursday 18 April, the Museum celebrates Easter with a day of themed arts and crafts. Children can create a rabbit or chick Easter basket and hanging decoration. These drop-in sessions are from 11.00 am to 1.00 pm and from 2.00 pm to 3.30 pm.

In addition, the Museum's Easter Egg Trail is back for the duration of the Easter Holidays. Children can follow the clues hidden around the Museum to win a chocolatey treat.

Site Manager Mary Humphries said: "With our new Museum Unlimited annual pass visitors pay just once and can visit for a whole year free of charge. This means they can enjoy all these great Easter events and more."

Notes to editors

1. The South West Heritage Trust

The South West Heritage Trust is an independent charity committed to protecting and celebrating Somerset and Devon's rich heritage. As well as the widely-praised Museum of Somerset and the redeveloped Somerset Rural Life Museum, in Glastonbury, the Trust manages state-of-the-art facilities in Taunton and Exeter to care for the extraordinary archive collections of the two counties. The Trust also provides essential advice about the historic environment and manages historic sites. Individuals and businesses are invited to support the charity through its Supporters' scheme.
