

Covid-19 regulations: Depositing archives at the North Devon Record Office

We are happy to receive the deposit of archives at the North Devon Record Office. However, to ensure your safety and that of staff the following guidelines need to be followed.

Making an appointment

Please contact us first either by email or telephone, so that we can discuss the proposed deposit.

north.devon@swheritage.org.uk

01271 318792; 318794 or 318795

If emailing us, please include details on the content of the collection, and the quantity. We will then advise you if they are suitable for deposit, or if they would best be deposited elsewhere. We will also arrange a convenient time to bring the documents to the Record Office. Please note, we can only accept new deposits on a Monday or Tuesday.

Please do not bring documents to us without an appointment, as a member of staff may not be available to accept them from you.

If you wish to deposit digital records please advise us of this, as these require separate guidelines, which can be found here: <https://swheritage.org.uk/devon-archives/wp-content/uploads/sites/4/2019/01/SWHT-Guidelines-for-depositing-digital-records.pdf>

Preparing the items for deposit

Please prepare the items you wish to deposit by following these guidelines:

- Remove all documents from poly-pockets.
- If they are stored in ring binders or lever-arch files, please remove these, and loosely tie the bundles together with string, or with elastic bands – if the folder had a title or useful information recorded on it, please note this on a clean sheet of paper placed at the front of the bundle.
- Remove any duplicate items, leaving one good, clean example.
- Place documents securely in bags or boxes. Any boxes will need to be stackable, so where possible please use boxes with lids, or ensure that documents do not protrude over the rim of the box. We will unfortunately be unable to return any boxes or bags used to deposit documents.

- If the deposit is a couple of volumes, which will sit safely on top of each other, there is no need to box or bag these.
- Please provide a list of the documents if this is possible.
- Include additional information about the collection, such as the provenance. Please record this on a separate sheet/s of paper and place in the box or bag.
- If any of the documents contain sensitive personal information, and therefore may require restricted access please also record this on the separate sheet.

Temporary receipt for deposit

Please complete this form prior to your visit and either email a signed copy of the form to us 48 hours before your visit (clearly including in your email the date and time of your appointment), or place a completed signed copy of the form in the box/bag. A copy of the form and details on how to complete it can be found on pages 2 and 4.

If you are unable to complete the form, please record all the information requested on a separate sheet of paper, again placed in the box/bag. Please retain a copy of the completed form for your own records.

Arriving at the North Devon Record Office

Please arrive at the agreed time and go to the door at the rear of the Library building and ring the doorbell. Staff will be expecting you and a trolley will be provided for the deposit to be placed on. Where possible we will ask you to put the items on the trolley as this will minimise handling. Please stack items on the trolley securely, so that they will not slide off.

As a precaution, deposits will be quarantined for a period of time and we will forward on an official receipt once the material has been fully documented by us.

If you are delayed or need to cancel your appointment please telephone to let us know.
